110. Also requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the experience, lessons learned and best practices of the main duty stations in performing quality control of contractual and in-house translations, including on requirements relating to the number and appropriate level of staff needed to carry out this function, are shared among duty stations and regional commissions, as appropriate;

111. Notes that the Secretary-General has established globally standardized performance indicators and costing models aimed at a more cost-effective strategy for the in-house processing of documents, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure their effective application at the four main duty stations;

112. Notes with appreciation the measures taken by the Secretary-General, in accordance with its resolutions, to address, among other things, the issue of the replacement of retiring staff in the language services, and requests the Secretary-General to maintain and intensify those efforts, including the strengthening of cooperation with institutions that train language specialists, in order to meet the needs in the six official languages of the United Nations;

113. Notes the need for energetic measures to avoid a disruptive shortage of applicants and a high turnover rate in the language career fields, particularly where rare language combinations are involved, and requests the Secretary-General to use appropriate means to improve the internship programme, including through partnerships with organizations that promote the official languages of the United Nations;

114. Welcomes the existing memorandums of understanding between the Organization and 22 universities as a way to strengthen the training of language professionals in order to improve the recruitment of qualified language staff, and requests the Secretary-General to continue his efforts to assess the appropriate number of memorandums of understanding in order to fulfil the needs of the Organization;

115. Requests the Secretary-General to make further concerted efforts to promote outreach programmes, such as traineeships and internships, and to introduce innovative methods to increase awareness of the programmes, including through partnerships with Member States, relevant international organizations and language institutions in all regions, in particular to close the wide gap of qualified candidates from Africa and from the Latin American and Caribbean region, and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-fourth session;

116. Notes with appreciation the positive experience with language traineeships in training young professionals and in attracting them to the United Nations, while enhancing the pool of qualified language professionals in language combinations that are critical for succession-planning purposes, and encourages the Secretary-General to continue his efforts in this regard;

117. Notes that the "African project" has the aim of establishing postgraduate university programmes in translation, conference interpreting and public service interpreting through centres of excellence on the African continent, and requests the Secretary-General to continue to report on the achievements of this project;

118. Also notes the difficulties in identifying and retaining qualified language professionals and the need to replenish the pool of language experts at the main duty stations, particularly New York and Nairobi, in order to prevent further negative impact on the capacity of the Secretariat to provide services in the six official languages of the United Nations;

119. Welcomes the efforts made by the Secretary-General to raise awareness among all Member States and the general public of career opportunities in conference services, including through the increased use of social media;

120. Notes the update provided by the Secretary-General on the pilot project related to the outposting to Vienna of translators from the French Translation Service in New York, and requests the Secretary-General to provide to the General Assembly at its seventy-fourth session further updates on this matter, including on the quality of services, a cost-benefit analysis, information on workload-sharing and lessons learned;

121. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to improve and strengthen his initiatives related to training and replenishing the language capacity of the Organization, including through the outreach programmes, in order to ensure sufficient capacity to address the interpretation and translation requirements of the Organization;

122. Also requests the Secretary-General to continue to liaise with permanent missions to identify outreach opportunities with universities, educational institutions and language learning centres located worldwide in order to ensure the continued availability of high-quality professional language services in the six official languages of the United Nations;

123. Further requests the Secretary-General to continue to improve and expand the list of universities having memorandums of understanding with the United Nations, ensuring the inclusion of universities, educational institutions and language learning centres located in all geographical regions, whenever possible;

124. Requests the Secretary-General to refrain from making any change of a substantive nature to agreed texts of both draft and adopted resolutions and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its seventy-fourth session.

Conclusions and recommendations

10. The Committee recommended that the General Assembly explicitly authorize the following bodies to meet in New York during the main part of its seventy-third session, on the understanding that all such meetings would be allocated conference services on an "as available" basis, in such a way that the work of the Assembly and its Main Committees would not be impeded:

(b) Committee on the Exercise of the Inalienable Rights of the Palestinian People;

(c) Executive Board of the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Population Fund and the United Nations Office for Project Services;

The General Assembly, in its resolution 72/19, approved the draft biennial calendar of conferences and meetings of the United Nations for 2018 and 2019, as submitted by the Committee on Conferences, and authorized the Committee to make any adjustments that might become necessary as a result of actions and decisions taken by the Assembly at its seventy-second session. The calendar was issued as A/AC.172/2018/2.

12. The Committee on Conferences approved the following requests:

(a) Request from the Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters to convene its sixty-ninth session in Geneva rather than in New York, from 24 to 26 January 2018;

(b) Request from the Chairs of the human rights treaty bodies to hold their 30th meeting in New York instead of in Geneva, from 28 May to 1 June 2018;

(c) Request from the Independent Audit Advisory Committee to add an additional day to its forty-fourth session, and meet from 11 to 14 December 2018, to enable the United Nations system oversight committees to meet, hosted by the Committee in the context of its forty-fourth session;

(d) Request from the Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters to convene its seventy-first session in Geneva rather than in New York, from 30 January to 1 February 2019.

14. The Chair said that, as in previous years, letters would be sent to the presiding officers of the calendar bodies whose utilization rate had fallen below the 80 per cent benchmark over the previous six years.

Chapter III
Documents management

A. Timely submission, processing and issuance of documents

17. At its 552nd meeting, on 4 September 2018, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning the timely submission, processing and issuance of documents (A/73/93, paras. 31–37).

Discussion

18. The representative of one delegation expressed a readiness to work with the Committee to address issues regarding the timely processing and issuance of documentation relating to the Fifth Committee. Another representative noted that the rising number of non-calendar meetings was placing the Department for General Assembly and Conference Management under growing strain.

B. Simultaneous issuance of documents

19. At the same meeting, the Committee considered the section of the report concerning the simultaneous issuance of documents (A/73/93, para. 45).

C. Digitization and uploading of important older United Nations documents

Chapter IV
Staffing

21. At its 552nd meeting, on 4 September 2018, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning matters relating to workload and staffing (A/73/93, paras. 52–62, and supplementary information, sect. III).

Discussion

22. One representative expressed support for signing more memorandums of understanding with tertiary institutions, especially those which already had or planned to introduce training programmes for United Nations translators and interpreters. The main goal of initiatives to modernize and streamline the work of the language services should be to improve the quality of translation and interpretation in all six official languages. New technologies should be compatible with that aim and user-friendly in all the official languages. Maintaining high quality depended in large part on the provision of good working conditions and the even distribution of adequate staff and resources among all language services. The Secretariat should ensure the smooth transfer of knowledge from senior to junior staff. The representative supported the use of temporary staff, particularly in understaffed language services, in line with General Assembly resolution 72/19 on the pattern of conferences.

Chapter V
Facilities and accessibility

A. Use of United Nations premises

23. At its 552nd meeting, on 4 September 2018, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning the use of United Nations premises in New York (A/73/93, para. 30).

B. Accessibility

24. At the same meeting, the Committee considered the section of the report concerning the accessibility of conference services (A/73/93, paras. 63–66).

Chapter VI
Measuring the quality of conference services

25. At its 552nd meeting, on 4 September 2018, the Committee considered the section of the report of the Secretary-General on the pattern of conferences concerning the measurement of the quality of conference services (A/73/93, paras. 67–69).

Chapter VII
